Status: NORMAL
Confidence: 90%

Explanation:

The image displays three individuals engaged in physical interaction. While the pose might initially suggest a struggle, a closer analysis of the visual cues indicates that this is likely playful wrestling, horseplay, or some form of physical activity rather than a violent confrontation. The most significant indicator is the clear smiling/smirking facial expression of the person in the blue shirt, who is in a position that could be interpreted as 'restraining' the person in the white shirt. There are no signs of aggression, distress, or injury on any of the participants. The third person seated on the ground appears to be an active part of this interaction. There are no visible weapons. Therefore, this scene is classified as non-threatening.
